Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I have greatly appreciated your four books and, as our phone conversation indicates, I'll be looking forward to your next book or books.

I've just checked over some of my cancelled check stubs and I've found that the D.A.'s office is finally accepting my minor contributions. It appears that I'll be able to avoid the step of shipping the contribution to you, en route to New Orleans. Thanks anyway.

Perhaps Wm. Turner's book will also come out this month. There seems to have been a vague suggestion of it in Ramparts.

Good luck in your coming books.

Sincerely,

Paul Christopher
